Predicted observations vs. measurements from random posterior draws